

NEWS FROM OTHER ISLANDS.

Late Items of Interest From Maui and Hawaii.

THE NANIWA HAS BEEN AT HILO.

Quite an Excitement in the Rainy City Over the Warship's Arrival—Water-front Items From Kahului and Hilo. Quick Trip of the John D. Spreckels.

MAUI, March 16.—The Claudine sails today (Friday), instead of Saturday as usual.

W. Jungbluth who came to Maui on the last trip of the J. D. Spreckels, died at Naalehu, Hawaii, on the 9th inst. He had been on the plantation but two days, when the fatal trouble of heart disease made an end of it. He leaves a wife and family in San Francisco to mourn his loss.

E. Hoffman, Esq., is now head sugar boiler, or inside superintendent, of Spreckelsville mill.

Certain rumors detrimental to the professional reputation of Pilot Robert English have reached Maui recently. It is learned from captains of vessels engaged in the island sugar trade, and from others concerned, that a more competent or skillful man could not easily be found than the present incumbent of the position of harbor pilot of the port of Kahului.

During tomorrow, the 17th inst., the teachers of Wailuku District hold their regular monthly meeting on the Wailuku school premises. The life and methods of Friedrich Froebel, the reformer, who in 1840 gave the name of "kindergarten" to that form of education, will be the subject under discussion. During the same evening a social entertainment will be given by the pedagogues and their neighbors in the old foreign church.

R. C. Perkins an English naturalist, after several expeditions through the almost impassable growth on the West Maui mountains, reached Makawao this week and will spend a month or six weeks on the slope of Haleakala. He is collecting birds for a London museum.

C. A. and R. Spreckels have been paying Spreckelsville plantation another visit during the past week.

Three or four English tourists arrived per this week's Claudine, and are "doing" Haleakala, Iao, and other points of interest.

Mrs. Spencer, widow of the late Charles N. Spencer, also arrived per Claudine and intends spending some time with her brother-in-law, Mr. Lincoln D. Spencer, of Waihee, which has now quite a foreign colony, the largest in years. Five o'clock teas, "kettledrums," and other social functions are in order in the lively village.

Wailuku plantation expects to cease its grinding within a few weeks.

G. P. Wilder has recently lost his fine mastiff, known to all its friends as "Minty." It is thought to have eaten some poisonous substance while accompanying Mr. Wilder on a trip toward Maalea.

Delinquent tax lists are now being posted up all through the Maui division. Citizens who have been remiss should immediately inspect them and thus avoid a suit at law.

Spreckelsville mill has recently been grinding Waikapu sugar—the farewell crop probably.

Tonight the Makawao literary people assemble at the Pais residence of J. W. Colville to witness what is prophesied to be a unique programme.

Mrs. B. D. Baldwin and baby, of Makawao, visit Honolulu this week.

At the Wailuku minstrel entertainment to take place at the skating rink during the 24th inst., Nestor Edison's improved concert phonograph will render the latest selections during intermissions.

The Haleakala (Annexation) Club of Makawao held its monthly meeting on Thursday evening, the 15th inst. The Pais-Hamakuapoko Club will meet probably tomorrow (Saturday) night.

PORT ITEMS.

The barkentine John Worster, A. P. Hanson master, arrived in port of Kahului during Sunday, the 11th inst. She came in ballast and was twelve days from San Francisco. She is loading Haiku, Paia and Waikapu sugar, and will probably sail for the Coast today (11th).

Schooner J. M. Coleman is loading H. C. Co.'s product, but will not be able to depart with full cargo before the latter part of next week.

Vessels soon to be sighted in the offing are the bark John Bailey, the brigantine J. D. Spreckels and the Courtney Ford.

On her last trip to the Golden Gate the J. D. Spreckels maintained her reputation for speed, making it in eleven and one-half days.

The barkentine Skagit, Robinson master, arrived in harbor last night, the 15th inst., sixteen days from San Pedro. She came for sugar and brought naught but ballast.

Weather—Some showers here and there; electricity during Thursday night.

HILO, Hawaii, March 15.—Saturday evening the 10th inst. an impromptu political meeting was held in the Hilo court house. A committee of three was appointed to call a meeting for the 17th inst. and notify all voters living in the district to that effect. It is expected that a permanent organization will be formed and that Hiloites will take their stand in the coming campaign.

The Hilo hotel was gay with Japanese bunting and lanterns on the 14th. A reception and dinner given to the officers of the Naniwa by the Japanese citizens of Hilo was the occasion.

Many of our townspeople have availed themselves of the hospitable invitation to visit the Naniwa and are much pleased with the vessel and her officers who have been kind and courteous.

The Naniwa leaves this evening (15th) and will make the circuit of Hawaii. She expects to spend a day at target practicing in Kealahou bay. Another short stop will be made at Kawaihae and on the 20th she hopes to be in her old berth in Honolulu harbor.

Mr. Peter Lee is in town on Volcano House business. He says the wall around the lake is increasing in height every day, and that Madame Pele's furnace is as active as ever.

The members of the reading club are taking a thorough Shakespearean course. "Twelfth Night" is the study this week. "Antony and Cleopatra" will follow.

The Hilo Social Club held its first regular meeting Saturday evening the 10th inst. at the home of Mrs. Luther Severance. Miss Richardson was elected president and Mr. Baptiste secretary, who are also to act as a board of directors with Mr. Hutchins and Miss Severance. The next meeting is to be held on the 23d inst. at Miss Richardson's home.

Miss Nellie Lowrey's host of friends are glad that she is with us once more. She is to be the guest of the Thrums for some little time.

Mr. F. S. Dodge is here in the interests of the Survey Department looking into the road to the Wainaku homesteads, also the Puna road.

Dr. Nichols leaves this morning per steamer Kinau. He will pay Kohala a visit ere he returns to Honolulu.

Rev. E. P. Baker is still a very sick man. The pulpit of the First Foreign Church was filled Sunday, the 11th inst., by Mrs. Leavitt, who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Terry.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rycroft, of Puna, are the guests of O. E. Richardson, Esq.

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

Wednesday morning, the 7th inst., the three-masted schooner Weatherwax, Smith commander, arrived, and three hours afterward the bark Annie Johnson, Captain Rock in command, dropped her anchor in Hilo Bay—both from San Francisco.

The former's cargo consisted of fifty tons of fertilizer, consigned to Waiakia Mill Company. The Johnson carried a miscellaneous cargo for the plantations and merchants of Hilo.

The Weatherwax cleared on the 13th for San Francisco with 796 tons of sugar. She tried to get to sea on the 14th, but the wind was so light that at sundown she was forced to anchor off Wainaku plantation.

The Johnson begins loading this morning, the 15th, and will probably sail from here on the 20th.

H. I. J. M. S. Naniwa from Honolulu arrived here on the afternoon of the 13th, causing a flutter of excitement among the Mikado's subjects.

In 2000 miles the bark Annie Johnson gained four days on the schooner Weatherwax.

The Kinau, in order to get a full load of sugar, leaves here a day later than her schedule time. The Kilauea Hou is assisting her in loading.

The steamer Hawaii discharged 5000 bags of Hakalau sugar in the Johnson Thursday morning.

The Likeli takes down a full load of Pepeekeo Sugar Company's product.

SENATOR MORGAN'S REPORT.

Some of Those Who Testified Before the Committee.

Senator Morgan's report on the Hawaiian question was received on the steamer Friday. It is a bulky volume of nearly 800 pages, and is a most complete affair. It contains, besides the full testimony given by many witnesses, a number of well executed maps of the different islands, and a detailed description of each island, and is an interesting document. It is not quite so attractive as Blount's famous report, owing, no doubt, to the fact that it is a more truthful statement of matters.

Among those who testified before the Senate Committee, and whose statements appear in the report, are the following: Rev. O. P. Emerson, P. C. Jones, Z. S. Spalding, W. D. Alexander, Lieut. Lucien Young, Lieut. Moore, Lieut. Laird, and Paymaster Hobbs, of the Boston, Jas. H. Blount, Commander Jewell, A. F. Judd, W. C. Wilder, Lieutenants Swinburne and Coffman, W. B. Oleson, J. L. Stevens, J. F. Morgan, W. R. Castle, E. D. Tenney, L. A. Thurston, J. A. McCandless, M. Stalker, W. S. Bowen, P. W. Reeder, C. L. MacArthur, Admiral Belknap, N. B. Delameter, F. R. Day, Chaplain Hoes, W. E. Simpson, Commander Ludlow, and many others.

The strongest recommendation that any article can have is the endorsement of the mothers of the town. When the mothers recommend it you may know that that article has more than ordinary merit. Here is what the Centerville, South Dakota, Citizen says editorially of an article sold in their town: "From personal experience we can say that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has broken up bad colds for our children. We are acquainted with many mothers in Centerville who would not be without it in the house for a good many times its cost, and are recommending it every day." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Colorless, Emaciated, Helpless
A Complete Cure by HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA.

This is from Mr. D. M. Jordan, a retired farmer, and one of the most respected citizens of Otsego Co., N. Y.

"Fourteen years ago I had an attack of the gravel, and have since been troubled with my Liver and Kidneys."

gradually growing worse. Three years ago I got down so low that I could scarcely walk. I looked more like a corpse than a living being. I had no appetite and for five weeks I ate nothing but gruel. I was badly emaciated and had no more color than a marble statue. Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and I thought I would try it. Before I had finished the first bottle I noticed that I felt better, suffered less, the inflammation of the bladder had subsided, the color began to return to my face, and I began to feel hungry. After I had taken three bottles I could eat anything without hurting me. Why, I got so hungry that I had to eat 5 times a day. I have now fully recovered, thanks to Hood's Sarsaparilla. I feel well and am well. All who know me marvel to see me so well." D. M. JORDAN.
